Tasting Notes

Layered and bright at the start—green apple, lime, grapefruit pith—then it opens into riper apricot tones with a chalky mineral texture. The oak is subtle, more “quiet butter/vanilla nuance” than anything loud. “Vieilles Vignes” (old vines) is usually a hint you’ll get extra concentration and texture.

Food Pairings

Pair with roast chicken, creamy mushroom pastas, grilled lobster with butter, or mild nutty cheeses like Comté.
